

TOURISM RESEARCH JOURNAL

Please pay attention to the following:

All papers that have passed the selection will be published in TRJ. To meet the publishing standards, it is necessary to pay attention to several things as follows:

1. The reference technique uses the APA Reference Style.
2. Sources referenced in the body text of the paper must be listed in the reference section, and vice versa.
3. Make sure the paper has gone through the proofreading process (checking spelling and grammar), so that it has an acceptable level of English readability.
4. The Abstract contains basic information covering issues, the significance of research, objectives, methods, and brief results with a maximum of 200 words.
5. Writing a full paper revision must follow the template included in the email attachment along with the reviewer feedback.
